MURDERS IN THE RUE MORGUE

WITH

BELA LUGOSI, SIDNEY FOX.

SH-SH-SH — ! Take a firm grip on yourself and get ready for a huge, delightful thrill. The most thrilling and the strangest and the most daring motion picture ever made. It is " MURDERS IN THE RUE MORGUE "

It was made by Universal Pictures, which company has a monopoly on this type of picture. Universal made "Dracula" with fear and trembling. It was an instant hit. It made "Frankenstein" with more confidence. It swept the country like a challenge, and now, with supreme confidence that millions of people will rush to see it, it offers "Murders in the Rue Morgue"

MONDAY, DECEMBER 12th, for THREE DAYS.

Patrons desirous of having one of these Programmes sent monthly to their house, please fill in attached coupon and give it to attendant or post it to the Manager.

THE SIGN OF FOUR

("U" Censor Certificate.)

ARTHUR WONTNER as SHERLOCK HOLMES
ISLA BEVAN as MARY MORSTAN
IAN HUNTER as DR. WATSON.

This is the most famous of the Sherlock Holmes stories by that master of detective yarns, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Not only is it the most famous but, from the point of view of screen material, his best. For "The Sign of Four" bristles with thrilling action as soon as the famous Baker Street criminologist is brought into the case. In fact the film ends with a breathtaking "free-for-all" against the grim background of the Thames waterfront. This finely staged and vigorously played scene is one of the finest "battles" between the law and the underworld seen on the screen.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15th, for Three Days.
